STATE'S BLUE LAWS MEET OPPOSITION

Efforts to Have House of Delegates Reconsider Bill Halted

FAVOR LOCAL OPTION

Movement Opposed by Richmond Ministers and Members From Rural Sections.

Richmond, Feb. 10—Efforts to revive the Wilcox-Boschen bill, which amends the Sunday closing law so as to give city Councils local option in the matter of enforcing the law against soda fountains, ice cream parlors, hotel cigar stands, bootblack stands and other such places were made in the House yesterday. It was hoped that the measure would be reached yesterday, but Speaker R. L. Brewer, Jr., ruled against taking the measure up out of its proper order and its place on the calendar was not reached.

The bill came up on its second reading last Friday, at which time a determined fight on the part of rural Delegates prevented it from being engrossed to its third reading.

Mayor Ainslie, William T. Dabney and others visited the Capitol Saturday for the purpose of getting the House to reconsider the vote by which it, temporarily at least, killed the bill.

The ministers of Richmond having got wind of this development, the Rev. George W. McDaniel, D. D., the Rev. J. J. Wicker and other clergymen were in the House when that body convened yesterday. More than one Delegate was approached by the ministers.

Dr. McDaniel, who opened the House with prayer, was later described by several of the city Delegates who are known to favor the bill as having "gotten in a lick or two" against the measure. In his prayer Dr. McDaniel exhorted his hearers "to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." One or more of his supplications were construed as having been inspired by the expected move on the part of those favorable to the measure to revive it.

Delegate Carter, of Hanover, offered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the lower branch refused to advance the bill on the calendar. Several of the members from the country districts sought to interpose objection. It finally was agreed to consider the motion to reconsider when the bill is reached in the regular order of business.

Last night the Lyceums clinched their hold on second place in the race for the Spalding Championship trophy in the City Basketball League by defeating the Virginias, 13 to 4, in a hard fought contest, at the armory. The work of the guards was very good, this causing the score to be very small, in fact, the smallest score of the season. Jim Hasson, with three goals from the floor, led the procession in points registered, while the floor work of Davis and Owens was good, Rosy Hayden and "Sinner" Hayden led the defensive work for the winners.

MASTER MASON'S CLUB

C. Page Waller Chosen President—Social Events Planned by Club

At a recent meeting of the board of governors of the Master Mason's Club, of this city, the resignation of its president, Fred A. Sotter, was read and accepted, he having taken up his new duties in Alabama. Mr. Sotter was twice elected as the club's president and was one of its founders. His resignation as president is keenly regretted, because of his untiring efforts in helping to bring the club to its present standing in this community.

The board of governors elected the club's former vice president, C. Page Waller, to the presidency, and J. E. W. Timberman was chosen vice-president, both of whom are prominent Masons in this city. The success of their administration of the club's affairs is assured because of their popularity among the members and the Masonic Fraternity in general.

Arrangements are under way to hold a club dinner the latter part of this month. The feature at this affair will be speakers of national prominence.

Preliminary steps are also taken to hold a ladies' night in the near future.

The club's officers recently elected are: C. Page Waller, president; J. E. W. Timberman, vice-president; C. W. Smith, secretary; H. C. Russell, treasurer; R. S. MacMillan financial secretary; F. P. Hall, chairman, board of governors.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Virginia contributed 5,130 casualties in winning of the world war. Official revised figures for Virginia and the various States, issued by the War Department last night, show that of Virginia soldiers who went into the war, 27 officers were killed in action, 13 died of wounds, 20 died of disease and from all other causes 270 officers are listed in the list of revised casualties.

The official figures show that 637 Virginia soldiers gave their lives in defense of American rights, 1,980 were slightly wounded, 1,484 severely wounded and 792 wounded, the degree undetermined. A total from all causes, including prisoners, is given as 5,860.

1500 MARCH ON LEXINGTON

Mountaineers Will Avenge Death of Mob Victims is Late Report

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 10.—It is reported that 1500 well organized and heavily armed mountaineers were marching on Lexington to take revenge for the killing of five and wounding thirty more members of a mob that was repulsed by the militia after attempting to lynch William Lockett, a negro, earlier in the day, convicted of killing Geneva Hardman, a white girl.

Lexington, under martial law, was preparing to met the mountaineers, according to word received here.

Rifles and machine guns were directed against the mob, whose leaders urged on, disregarding warning shots fired over their heads.

HEEDS WILSON ADVICE

Democrats Favor Delay on Training Plan Until After Election

House Democrats in party caucus went on record late yesterday as opposed to present action on the question of compulsory military training or service by a vote of 106 to 17.

The following resolution was adopted:

"It is the sense of this caucus that no measure should be passed by this Congress providing for universal compulsory military service or training."

Opposition to the resolution was led largely by the New York delegation, and lively debate proceeded for more than three hours before the final vote came. It had been expected that the vote would be very close, but the publication of President Wilson's letter to Secretary Baker urging that the caucus take no action which would tend to make a party issue of universal training turned the tide of sentiment.

PETERS SPENT $3,500 TO DEFEND HALL

Furnishes Senate With Accounting Demanded by Oliver Resolution

$500 FOR AN OPINION

Goes Outside of Office of State Legal Department to Determine Rights of Agents.

Richmond, Feb. 10.—Prohibition Commissioner J. Sidney Peters spent $3,534.36 to defend W. C. Hall, a prohibition agent in his two trials for murder, according to a report filed yesterday in the Senate in compliance with a demand for an accounting by Senator Walter Tansil Oliver, of Fairfax. This sum is in addition to the sum paid to the State through its regular channels.

Commissioner Peters, complying with a resolution adopted by the Senate on January 30, filed an itemized statement showing public funds expended by him, or which he has contracted to spend, both in defending his agents from criminal prosecution and in getting legal opinions from other than regular employes or State officials. Approximately $5,500 was either spent or will be spent when pending cases are disposed of.

Commissioner Peters restated his determination to defend employees of his department in prosecutions arising out of the enforcement of the prohibition law.

"In every instance prosecution of suits arose in connection with the discharge of duty imposed upon these officers of the law," said Commissioner Peters in his report. "I have defended them only after a thorough investigation had convinced me of their innocence."

The Hall case, which involved the trial of one of four prohibition agents charged with slaying two suspected law violators near Fishers Hill, Shenandoah County, on March 26 last, was the most expensive to the Prohibition Department, there having been two trials of the defendant. Ten cases in all are reported.

Louis O. Wendenburg, of this city, for professional services at the two trials of Hall, received the sum of $1,000. Walton and Walton received $500 and Meetz and Didlake $300 for their professional service at the same time, making the counsel fees $1,800 The balance of the $3,534.36 was accounted for by railroad fares and hotel bills for witnesses and other legal expenses.

In one case Commissioner Peters has gone outside of his office of the State legal department to get an opinion. In that instance he paid Wyndham R. Meredith, of this city, $500 for an opinion concerning the rights of inspectors and deputies to search trains on which ardent spirits were being unlawfully transported.

PREDICT COMING CRASH

General Secretary of Canadian Railway Union Asserts Labor Will be Hardest Hit

London, Feb. 10.—James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, said today that the state of the world was such that unless something is done speedily a crash would come in which nobody would suffer more than the workers.

Mr. Thomas declared that the British workmen must work a quarter harder than before the war, the French twice as hard and the Germans eighteen times harder. He added that the Labor party's difficulties arose not through the cleverness of the other parties, but through jealousies in its own ranks.

Worry over their deaths is believed to have prompted her act.

ROAD FROM HERE TO FAIRFAX NEEDED

Big Handicap if Valley Turnpike Does Not Come Through City

MATTER VITAL TO CITY

All Agencies Should Unite in Effort to Bring Highway Through City Rather Than Let Travel be Diverted

(Editorial)

It will be very wise for our City to fully realize the importance of the present program for road construction now being mapped out by our State Highway officials, as the money appropriated by Congress for road building which is to be used in conjunction with that provided by the different States is only available for a little over two years from this time and we understand the plans for the expenditure of this fund is being finally decided on now.

At a special session of the Legislature last summer, the state of Virginia made proper provision to raise such funds as were necessary to meet the Federal aid for roads and this work was turned over to the State Highway Commissioner, who is now acting with the State Highway Commission, a body authorized at that session and recently appointed by the Governor.

From our understanding of the present plan, Alexandria is directly interested in a good highway from Washington to Richmond and in the proposed highway from Alexandria thru Fairfax, Loudoun and Fauquier counties via Middleburg, which road connects with the Valley Pike near Winchester.

The road from Washington to Richmond seems to be assured, but as Alexandria and Fairfax counties, in conjunction with the Government, have already provided that a part of this road running from Washington to Camp Humphreys, the only new road construction in this immediate vicinity which it now seems we could hope to secure is that part which would properly connect us with the Valley Pike.

From such information as we are able to secure it seems that the present plans contemplate the construction of state highways from Fairfax on thru to the Valley, but does not contemplate construction of a state highway from Alexandria to Fairfax.

If our understanding should be correct, it can readily be seen what a great disadvantage it would be to Alexandria to have the richest sections of Northern Virginia practically at our door and not accessible to our City, for the want of a good road to Fairfax, but at the same time this section would be accessible to Washington on account of a good road from Fairfax to that city.

At this time when automobile travel and the handling of freight by trucks is becoming such a tremendous factor in the transportation problem of a community, it would be a very great handicap to our city if that part of the highway connecting us with the Valley does not come all the way to Alexandria, and it should be borne in mind that if this link is not built there will not be a single dollar spent within seven or eight miles of our City for new road construction under a program which some figure will total three to four thousand miles of highways and which will undoubtedly cost many millions of dollars.

It hardly seems possible that any of the officials of the State of Virginia, would be willing to permit such a splendid section of the State to be cut off from out City and at the same time made accessible to Washington, when there is so little road building involved, but we feel that this matter is of such vital importance to the future of this community that we strongly recommend to the City Council, Chamber of Commerce and others interested in our welfare, the immediate importance of using every effort at their command to bring this whole subject forcibly to the attention of the proper State officials with the idea of urging them to take such action as may be necessary to bring this highway thru our city.

NAME EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF 8

Citizens' Association Holds Business Meeting and Discusses Plans

DUES DOLLAR A YEAR

Everyone in City Invited to Attend its Meetings and Unite for Betterment of City.

At a meeting of the Alexandria Citizens' Association held last night in Odd Fellows' Hall, F. Clinton Knight, president of the organization, named an executive committee of eight to look after the affairs of this new organization and the committee follows: Samuel Haslett and Louis P. Woodward, first ward; Ashby Bladen and Roger Sullivan, second ward; John Bayne and W. E. Bowen, third ward; Isaac S. Groves and Wilmer McMenamin, fourth ward.

Secretary James Luckett read a number of communications, among them being one from E. W. R. Ewing, chairman of the Ballston Citizens' Association, in which he offered to deliver an illustrated lecture under the auspices of the association. Mr. Luckett also stated that he expected to have a speaker present at the next meeting.

The annual dues were fixed at $1 a year and everyone present paid their dues and enrolled as members.

It was announced that it is the desire of the members of the association to have every citizen become identified with this association. No invitation is necessary. The presence of all persons interested in the general welfare and upbuilding of the city, it was stated, is desired, and hope was expressed that at the next meeting there will be a larger attendance.

Among those present last night at the meeting were Captain Albert Bryan, James M. Duncan and William J. McCaffrey, candidates for the democratic nomination for mayor in the primary which will be held April 6, together with a majority of the new candidates for city council in the different wards.

Speeches were made by many of those present in which it was recounted what such an association could do toward helping to bring about general improvements in the city, and all of the speakers were of the opinion that much good would be accomplished by the organization.

It was explained that they could consider such subjects as streets parks, public utilities, gas, health and, in fact, everything that is of interest to the citizens.

It was decided to hold another meeting next Monday night.

LIFESAVERS DROWNED

Six Perish While Trying to Save Crew of Another Ship

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 10.—The second officer and five men of the crew of the British steamer Bradboyne when she was abandoned off the coast of Newfoundland, according to radio messages received here yesterday.

The message gave no further particulars as to the fate of the Bradboyne, 25 members of whose crew were reported last night as being safe aboard the Oxonian and Monmouth; but is presumed that she had lost her boats and was in a sinking condition when the two rescue ships arrived, and that the majority of her crew were taken off in the face of severe weather conditions. No word has yet been received concerning the fate of the remaining members of her crew, including the chief engineer.

She married the man she hated in order to shield the man she loved. What was the reason? Why should Sigrid, the beautiful dancer, favorite in the London music halls, make her supreme sacrifice in the heart of India? See Nazimova, the superb, in her latest and greatest production, "Stronger Than Death," at the Richmond Theatre tonight and yield to the spell of a love story that quickens the pulses.

A committee composed of Mrs. D. J. Howell, Miss Mary Lindsey, Miss Bertha M. Bristow, and Miss Sara H. Shotts appeared in the interest of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society of the city and asked for rooms for the organization. The chamber voted to give them the use of the rooms now used by the local Red Cross and the two organization now will share the same quarters.

The Alexandria Citizens' Association also petitioned for permission to hold its meetings in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce and the petition was granted. Considerable other business of a routine nature was disposed of.

ASK FORGIVENESS

Man Who Bared Double Life to Save His Wife Now Wants Reconciliation

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 10.—"For the sake of our babies I am going to plead with my wife to forgive me for my wrongdoing," today declared Mervin Uhl, husband of Mrs. Katherine Geary Uhl, acquitted Saturday by a jury here for the slaying of Edgar Bryan Pownell, when he left for the home of his wife at Mt. Savage, Md.

"It was not necessary to testify and bare my unfaithfulness to the jury," said Uhl, "but I did so to save her from the gallows or probably penal imprisonment. If I am given another chance I will be a devoted husband and father."

During the trial of his wife, Uhl took the stand and revealed his life of reckless escapades with other women when his wife and babies were at home. His object was to show that his wife always was a fond wife and mother, of irreproachable character. Uhl as bitterly scored by counsel for both sides during their arguments to the jury.

Following her acquittal, Mrs. Uhl was taken away from her husband by her father, Thos. Geary, a farmer of Mt. Savage, and other friends.

"My daughter will never live with him again, remarked Mr. Geary, father of the woman who said she slew Pownell because he had attempted to ravish her. Uhl has broken up his home, put his furniture in storage, and now repentant says he wants to start all over again.

MANY USELESS BILLS

Some members of the Virginia legislature are keeping up with the long established custom by introducing many fool bills which will benefit nobody. It would be a good idea to repeal one-half of the state laws and enforce the other half. (Alexandria County Monitor.

William Walter Phelps was a prominent American politician, a quarter of a century ago he served in Congress several terms and at times was United States Minister to Austria and Germany. He possessed a vein of humor. A young man who had been elected to Congress from New Jersey requested Mr. Phelps to give him some "pointers" before he took his seat in the House of Representatives. Mr. Phelps' first suggestion to the new member was to vote to adjourn at any time on general principles, as there is always enough business on hand to keep Congress busy for five hundred years.

The General Assembly of Virginia may have enough bills on hand to keep it going equally as long, judging from lists of measures introduced. They take up much space daily in the Richmond papers. The great mass of bills introduced at each session of the legislature, however, die aborning. They are referred to committees, pigeon-holed and never again see the light of day.

THE CRY OF LONG AGO

Sixty years ago or more "Encouraging Home Industry," was the slogan sounded throughout Virginia. Years before nearly everything used in Alexandria was manufactured in Alexandria. Some still living will recall the fact that about fifty journeymen hatters were in our community at that time. In those days a man had his head measured for a hat by John Arnold, John Howe, Basil Warring, William Johnson and others who conducted manufactories of caputical coverings. Boots and shoes were also made "according to the strap," that is measurement, by Peyton Ballenger, Thomas Wade, George W. Clifford, John L. Smith, Robert Buchanan and other Knights of St. Crispin of more or less note. Locks, bolts, staples, horseshoes and horseshoe nails were also made here. A corporal's guard of merchant tailors were in business here, prominently among which were William Arnold, John A. Field, Jacob Rixbury, Judson Mitchell, William H. Massey (at one time postmaster), William E. Atwell, John Keyes and others. About that time James Irwin and H. S. Martin brewed ale and beer drunk in Alexandria.

All the bread consumed in the city was produced by Alexandria bakers—John Churchman, Michael Gossmann, William and Samuel O. Baggett, and others, while George Weissmuller kept the best grade of bologna sausage on the market, and William Hammerdinger furnished the small shops with horsecakes. Jamieson's bakery which stood upon the site of the building now used by Charles King's Sons kept stores supplied with crackers and cakes and furnished ship biscuits for vessels hailing from this port.

The Mount Vernon Cotton Factory then in full blast, placed most of its manufactures upon the shelves of Alexandria merchants.

When the civil war was about to be precipitated upon our country a noticeable decline in the use of home made articles was apparent. Yankee pegged shoes, hats, ready-made clothing, etc., gradually crowding out our home manufactures, and the cry was sounded over Alexandria and the Old Dominion, "Encourage Home Industries," but the cry was unheeded by the majority, and by the time the war between the states came to a close home manufactures had become virtually a thing of the past.

While Alexandria does not boast of many manufactories at present and there is not so much reason to hoist the standard, "Encourage Home Industries," the slogan might at present be, "Encourage Home Enterprise"—that is Alexandria stores, in which virtually everything needed can be obtained at as low rates as they are offered in other places minus the expense of traveling to and fro.

While Alexandria has always prided itself upon having first-class stores, these have been materially augmented during the past few years. The proprietors have leased structures here and spent considerable money in modernizing and storing them with choice goods. They should receive the encouragement they deserve.

As will be seen by the advertising columns of the Gazette, the men conducting most of these enterprises are up-to-date. They believe, as did the late P. T. Barnum, in the power of printers' ink. A purchasing trip to Washington or Baltimore is pleasant to some prospective buyers, and while not attempting to deter those who should be allowed the privilege of spending their money according to their own tastes, it might be suggested, that it would be well for such to investigate in their home cities first, as many have gone farther and fared worse.

AN IMPOLITIC DEMAND

The Entente demand for the surrender of a large number of German war criminals is not likely to be pressed. It was probably not intended seriously, and was made to placate a certain element in Great Britain and France rather than with the purpose of inaugurating a great court of war assizes. A large majority of those demanded doubtless deserve punishment. At the beginning of the war the German army and the German people, too, for that matter, were in a brutal frame of mind, and soldiers and citizens alike were disposed to treat their enemies with scant consideration, if not with shocking cruelty. And even up to the last year of the war their military commanders persisted in barbarous practices, and frequently violated civilized usages. If exact justice could be done in this world, there are some on the list submitted to the German Government, who should be beaten with many stripes.

Unfortunately, it has become necessary to condone most of these war crimes, so far as individual punishment is concerned. There is talk of softening or remitting some of the material and financial burdens imposed upon Germany by the treaty, not because Germany should not pay in full, but because she may not be able to do so without impairing her power of recuperation. It may pay us better to make her a center of production and stability than to bleed her enarly to death. If the treaty terms are modified, it will be because we are influenced not by generosity, but by self interest.

A similar policy may be wisely advocated as to personal reprisals. They may be lawful, but they are not expedient. It would be foolish now to press these claims at the risk of creating intense national resentment. Moral as well as material consequences must be considered in our dealings with the new Germany.—(Baltimore Sun.

DEATH WIPES OUT VILLAGES

Galicia, Asking for U. S. Doctors, Reports 100,000 Typhoid Fatalities

Warsaw, Feb. 10.—American Red Cross officials have been asked by the Polish government to rush doctors to southeastern Galicia, where typhoid fever is epidemic. M. Damosy, a member of the chamber of deputies says that the people of eastern Galicia are literally dying out, and that several villages in this district are left without a single survivor. Since the epidemic began, it is said, 100,000 deaths have occurred, one of every five taken ill dying.

At Tarnapol there is a daily death roll of 100 at hospitals, while at Stanislau hospitals are so crowded that typhoid victims are reported lying in the streets. It is asserted the people are afraid to go near these sufferers and that physicians are too busy to give them any attention.

REFRAIN FROM TOBACCO

Methodist Board of Temperance Points Out Evil Effects on America

Washington, Feb. 10.—Increased use of tobacco among women during 1919 was "appalling," according to the board of temperance, prohibition and morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In a statement made public here this week the board called attention to "the necessity of making an earnest appeal to women to refrain from the use of tobacco in the name of the country's welfare, no matter what strict justice may declare their right and privilege to be."

"No nation can maintain the vigor which has been characteristic of the American people after its women begin the use of cigarettes," the statement said. "The sedentary life of women tends to an excess in the use of tobacco and produces more serious results than is caused by its use among men. The effect of tobacco upon women is similar to its effects on immature youths."

TO CONTINUE FIGHT

Meeting of W. C. T. U. at Macon Declares Prohibition Fight is Not Yet Near End

Macon, Feb. 10.—The work of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was not finished with the passage of national legislation against liquor, according to views expressed by the speakers of the South Atlantic regional conference here last week, and the women will continue to work for law enforcement and the organization will be maintained for other lines of activity.

"One of the next important steps to be taken by temperance workers," said Mrs. Sheppard, of Virginia, "is the eradication of the ancient superstituton that alcohol has any value as a medicine."

Mrs. Sheppard stated that the surgeon generals of the army and navy were only waiting for enough physicians to lend their co-operation to remove alcohol from the supplies of naval and military hospitals.

Miss Elizabeth Perkins, director of the Child Welfare Department, declared "the defects of the children are due to the ignorance of the grown generation."

"It is a sorrowful thing for a child to be born in the United States," she said. "If the child could choose for himself he would prefer to be born in seven other countries. Every year 16,000 mothers die in our country from preventable diseases."

GILLETT HEADS "BLACKLIST"

Gompers Issues Statement Attacking Speaker for Utterances

Speaker Frederick H. Gillett is placed at the head of the "political blacklist" now being compiled by the American Federation of Labor, as the result of a speech delivered Sunday at Springfield, Mass., In this speech Speaker Gillett is reported to have said:

"It is a question whether the combinations of the employed are not more threatening to our business life than those of the employers." The Speaker added that in organized labor Congress was confronted with a problem similar to that of years ago, when Congress was forced to fight the trusts."

Mr. Gillett's speech evoked a veritable hurricane of disapproval from leaders of the Federation of Labor here yesterday.

Samuel Gompers last night issued a reply to Speaker Gillett's arraignment of organized labor.

FLAYS CITY OFFICIALS

Mayoralty Candidate Charges Member of Richmond City Government Got Percentage on Purchase

Richmond, Feb. 10.—John Hirschberg, candidate for Mayor, addressing more than 500 union men at the Arcade Building Sunday branded the present city administration as inefficient, and declared that the Department of Public Works alone was wasted enough money to pay the Mayor's salary for 100 years.

Attendance at the meeting was so large that not only the hall in which the address was delivered, but the landing and stairs outside were packed to suffocation.

He charged that a man connected with the city government had aided in 'railroading" an appropriation of $240,000 through the City Council for expenditure by the Department of Public Safety for motor equipment The speaker claimed that the individual who aided in the "railroading" of the appropriation received a percentage from the motor equipment sale for which the appropriation was made.

Mr Hirschberg described the incident as the purchase of the new LaFrance motor fire engines for the Fire Department, and said that the person who received the percentage was interested in the Virginia Equipment Company, which was a party to the transaction.

Further, Mr. Hirschberg charged that the city government was a "closed corporation," through which it was practically impossible for the average citizen to get justice. Declaring that the City Code made it mandatory for the comptroller to issue a monthly statement of finances he charged that the officials were unwilling for the citizens to know how their own money was being spent, and stated that no statement had been issued for twelve months.

KILLED IN FUED

Axes, Knives and Guns Are Used by North Carolians—Fight Over Land

Morgantown, N. C., Feb. 10.—One man was killed outright, another probably mortally wounded and three others so badly injured that they are unable to be taken to jail, as a result of a fight in which seven men participated with axes, knives and guns in the south mountains of Burke county,, according to reports reaching here yesterday.

The desperate fight, which occurred Sunday night, seems to have been in the nature of a pitched battle between two factions and was the culmination of a disagreement over division of lands.

Lenoir Mull was killed outright, Andrew Lafever was literally cut to pieces with an axe and is expected to die, and Alfred Mull, Mack Lefever and Frank Brittain were terribly beaten with butts of guns or other weapons and also cut with axes and knives, according to the reports reaching here. All seven of the participants in the fight were relatives, it is said.

FARMERS AGAINST LABOR

Will Not Join In Political Program Grange Master Says.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Farm organizations will not join the American Federation of Labor in its nonpartisan campaign to elect this year only friends of the tradesunion movement, according to T. C. Atkeson, represenative of the National Grange, which has 700,000 members.

The first reaction in Congress to plans of organized labor for intervention in the coming political campaign came today in the House. Attacking the labor announcement as "a pronunciamento against Congress," Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, said it was "the greatest menace ever sounded in this country."

The Texas member declared "the showing of Samuel Gompers hand is going to wake up the people of this country."

"Whenever Samuel Gompers puts his hand on a Representative and says 'Elect him,' the people will keep that man at home" he said.

BOOSTED BY WILSON'S NIECE

Norman Mack Indorsed by Women For Senate After Her Action

New York, Feb. 10.—It fell to a niece of President Wilson today to start a friend of her illustrious uncle on the path toward the Senate. Whether Norman Mack, Democratic National Committeeman from Buffalo, N. Y., reaches the upper branch of Congress remains to be seen. But he was indorsed for the candidacy by the Women Democrats of America at a meeting of the executive committee. Mrs. Mary A. Morse, organizer, moved that Mack receive the indorsement. It was seconded by Miss Margaret Vale, a niece of President Wilson and founder of the Women Democrats. She will lead the campaign in Mack's behalf.

"We are heartily in favor of Mr Mack's Senatorial candidacy," said Miss Vale, "because of his recent action in coming out for a 'fifty-fifty' basis for the women in politics."

VIRGINIA NEWS

A bill requiring able-bodied children of more than 16 years of age to support destitute parents was introduced in the Virginia legislature yesterday. At the same time a bill was introduced providing a penalty of $500 for failure of parents to support illegitiate children.

Dr. E. C. Levy, doctor of public welfare, in Richmond, said yesterday there was every indication that the influenza epidemic was on the wane. "It is too early yet, of course, to withdraw any of the restrictions," he explained, "but as soon as practical we will take steps to bring conditions to normal." There were 243 new cases of influenza reported to the city health authorities yesterday.

An increase of 50 per cent in the admission price to State and county fairs was voted yesterday at the annual meeting of the Virginia and West Virginia Fair Association, held at Danville. Increased cost of operation is given as the reason for the advance. H. B. Watkins, Danville, was re-elected president and C. B. Ralston Staunton, secretary and treasurer. The date for the Richmond State Fair was fixed for October 4-14.

State Democratic leaders are behind a movement to abolish the State primary and return to the convention system of nominating candidates. This issue is expected to come up at a meeting of Democratic politicians in Richmond tonight. Senators Swanson and Glass, as well as number of Virginia members of the House of Representatives are expected to attend the meeting.

Miss Jeannie P. Vandergrift, 69, a resident of Lynchburg, for many years, but a native of Alexandria, died at the Home and Retreat late Saturday night of senility. The deceased was a daughter of the late H. W. Vandergrift, who in bygone years was superintendent of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, now the Washington Division of the Southern Railway.

Sixteen deaths yesterday and three Sunday from influenza brought the total dead from that disease and pneumonia in Roanoke to 54 since January 22.

Mrs. Abbie J. Clapp, mother of former Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, died Sunday at the country home of her son, at Lorton, Fairfax county. She was 87 years old.

Before He's Hurt

The little fellow who sets up a howl when he only thinks that something is about to befall him, isn't so much different from some grown people. For instance, those who buy out of town simply because they think that our local stores do not have what they want—these folks are very much like him.

It isn't fair to accuse our local merchants of not having up to date goods if you only think it. Neither is it fair to them or to yourself for you to go elsewhere when they do have, or can get, what you want.

Make it a habit to go to your local dealer first. When he finds that you are going to give him a chance, he'll make every effort always to have the goods you like.

WIFE KILLS HUSBAND

Two of Five Shots Fired From Dark Doorway Take Effect

Hampton, Va., Feb. 10.—S. Gordon Cumming, one of Virginia's best known lawyers, one time candidate for Attorney General of the State, and former member of the House of Delegates of the General Assembly, was shot and probably fatally wounded here late Saturday afternoon, by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Jester Cumming. The shooting took place in front of the Kecoughtan Building, on South King street. Mrs. Cumming, it is stated, having secreted herself in a doorway, stepping out as her husband passed along the street and firing five shots at him.

Two of the bullets took effect, one striking Cummings in the neck, another imbedding itself in his liver. He was taken to Dixie Hospital and Saturday night an operation was performed by Dr. G. K. Vanderslie. He died yesterday morning.

After firing at her husband, Mrs. Cummings flung the revolver into the gutter and, screaming hysterically, ran into a nearby store, where she collapsed, and was later taken into custody by the police. She is in jail under a physician's care, charged with assault with intent to kill.

The woman who is charged with the shooting of her husband, is Mr. Cumming's second wife, his first wife, formerly Miss Bessie Waller, of Old Point Comfort, Va., having divorced him more than ten years ago Cumming was married to the woman in March 1914, shortly after which, Mrs. Cumming filed suit for divorce and custody of their boy, Kenneth, who was then said to be about two years old.

The wife failed to press the suit and Mr. Cumming then filed a cross complaint, charging cruelty and desertion and was granted a separation by Judge Robinson of the Hampton Court. This was a year ago after which Mrs. Cumming took an appeal to the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, the argument in the case having been heard in Richmond about two weeks ago, Richard E. Byrd, United States District Attorney for the Western District of Virginia representing Mrs. Cumming.

ADDITIONAL RULINGS ON REINSTATEMENTS

A series of decisions issued by the Director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury provides more liberal conditions for reinstatement of lapsed or canceled insurance.

The provisions of Treasury Decision No. 47, allowing eighteen months from the date of discharge for reinstatement upon payment of only two months' premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated, are retained. That decision is liberalized, however, by a new provision that men out of the service are permitted to reinstate by merely paying the two months' premiums without making a statement as to health at any time within three calendar months following the month of discharge.

After the three months following the date of discharge have elapsed, a statement from the applicant to the effect that he is in as good health as at the date of discharge or at the expiration of the grace period, whichever is the later date, will be required together with a written application for reinstatement and the tender of two months' premiums on the amount of insurance he wishes to reinstate.

In order to give all former service men whose insurance has lapsed or been canceled, a fair chance to reinstate their insurance, including men who have been out of the service eighteen months or more, and who are therefore barred from reinstatement under the former ruling, a special blanket ruling is made which allows all ex-service men to reinstate their insurance before December 31, 1919, provided that such application is in as good health as at date of discharge or at expiration of the grace period, whichever is the later date, and so states in his application. If secure it is necessary that he tender the two months' premiums on the amount of insurance he wishes to reinstate.

Service men who reinstated their insurance by payment of all back premiums prior to July 31, 1919, when the decision requiring payment of only two months' premiums went into effect, upon written application to the Bureau may have any premiums paid in excess of two applied toward the payment of future premiums. For example, if after a policy had lapsed for six months, a man reinstated and paid six months' premiums instead of two, he may secure credit for four months' premiums.

The provisions for reinstatement do not protect a man until he actually reinstates. If he waits he may not be in as good health as he was at the time of discharge and consequently may not be able to secure reinstatement.

Don't put off reinstatement. Do it now!

Live stock insurance. Carver and Callahan, 127 North Fairfax St. 28-tf.

Hood Prices, being based absolutely on actual costs of highest quality materials and labor, are consistent with Hood Quality and Road Service

The Hood ideal of tire value and service — greatest average mileage actually delivered at lowest cost per mile — remains unshaken by unsettled conditions which are arising to confront and confuse both tire dealers and tire users.

With costs of materials and labor at a high point, with the cost of power showing increase, with labor constantly increasing in cost, with rubber only slightly weakening, and with overhead reduced to a point of efficiency seldom equaled in the tire business, Hood will maintain present prices and quality.

Any reduction under the above conditions would necessitate a reduction of quality or quantity of materials or of both. We will not pull down our standard — it has made Hood Tires famous the country over as the Quality Tires of America.

The quality of Hood Tires will be maintained.

Hood prices will continue to be — as in the past — THE standard by which real tire values can be safely judged, for to-day the price of a tire is the only true representation of comparative value — gas-stations have come to mean nothing.

Ask us to show you records of Hood average mileage of last year. Let us prove to you WHY prices, decided by rules scientifically followed, make the Hood the most economical tire you can buy.

Can you afford to be without Hoods?

Hood Tires give maximum miles at minimum cost. A bona-fide guarantee with every tire. Fabric guaranteed 8,000 miles; cord guaranteed 10,000 miles. Cut your car expense by equipping with Hoods.

"PILLBOX" GUARDS A BANK

This steel "pillbox," similar to those used in France last year, has been erected in a New York bank as a guard against bandits. In it is stationed a watchman with a riot gun.

Noah's Sweet Tooth.

Who invented sweetmeats and confectionery?

Diving deep into the story of the ancients, the writer has come to the conclusion that some, if not all the credit, must go to old friend Noah.

He it was who first hit upon the idea of boiling down the starch of the wheat and the juice of the grape. The result was a paste, said to be the origin of our present-day Turkish "delight."

The ancient Egyptians knew all about making "toothsome morsels," although sugar was unknown.

Whole fruits, particularly figs and dates, were used for flavoring purposes, the latter especially for preserves and cakes. In old tombs date sweetments have been found; also records of honey jellies.

The making of confectionery, in fact goes back 3,400 years, proof of which is to be found on the walls of Egyptian tombs.

HERE IS A REAL HERO

Henry G. Maas, third officer of the American steamship Sutherland, who dived overboard and rescued two longshoremen who had fallen into the water. One man slipped from a near-by dock and the other in an effort to catch him as he fell was dragged overboard. Maas jumped into the icy water, held one man up with one hand and swam to the other whom he pushed against piling and held there until aid arrived. Maas, who weighs only 125 pounds, now has a record of five lives saved.

Thought She Had Moved.

Mrs. Clancey was a very sarcastic woman, and it was probably due to this fact that she had a falling out with her friend, Mrs. Murphy, who lived in the apartment just under her.

One day, while Mrs. Clancey was feeling particularly mean, she looked down from her window and saw Mrs. Murphy also enjoying the scenery. She could not resist the temptation to take a shot at her.

"O! say, Murphy," she called down in deep sarcasm, "why don't ye take your ugly ould mug out iv the windy and put your pet monkey in its place? That'd give the neighbors a change they'd like."

Mrs. Murphy looked up.

"Well, now, Mrs. Clancey," she slowly said, "it was only this mornin' that I did that very thing, an' the police man came along, an' whin he saw the monkey he bowed and smiled and said: 'Why, Mrs. Clancey, when did ye move downstairs?'"

Lynchburg Men Used Ruse For Robbery, It is Alleged

Webber impersonated, it is alleged a city detective and took $1 from a country man in a park here, has been sentenced to 90 days and fined $1,000 by a Corporation Court jury. Kirby turned State's evidence against Webber, who was sentenced to three years in prison.

Webber has a wife and five small children, which some of the members of the jury say saved him from the maximum sentence.

SITS WITH DEAD CHILD

New York Woman Says She Planned Suicide, But Lacked Courage

New York, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Emily Ma. Favre sat for five days beside the body of her 12 year old daughter, Margaret, whom she shot through the heart Saturday morning, as she lay asleep in her apartment in the Ashton Hotel, she confessed to the police yesterday after her arrest on a charge of homicide. She had tried to turn her pistol on herself but lacked the courage to do it, she said. The little girl was ill with influenza at the time.

Financial worries had temporirally unbalanced her mind. Mrs. Favre told the police. She had been receiving monthly payments from an interest in a lumber business left her by her father, and when these failed to arrive last week she wrote to Mr. Jackson at the company's New York office threatening to kill herself at once. The mails were delayed by the storm and Jackson did not get the letter until today.

His representative called at Mrs Favre's apartment hotel without delay and receiving no response got the house manager to force the Favre front door. They found Mrs Favre sitting beside her dead daughter with a pistol in her hand. She made a movement as though to shoot herself and the two men overpowered her, taking the gun away.

She was examined by the police charged with homicide and held without bail. She said her husband was Seymore Favre, sometimes called Simon Favre, of Ontario, Canada. They were divorced shortly after Margaret's birth. Mrs. Favre was born in England and lived in New Orleans, where she was married, until last October, when she came to New York.

Thousands of Railway Men May Quit Work February 17

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 10.—Orders directing 300,000 members of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes and Railway Shop Laborers to suspend work at 7 a. m., Tuesday, February 17, were going out last night to the various locals of the organization.

Decision to order the men out was announced by Allan E. Barker, grand president of the organization, following a meeting yesterday of the general chairmen of the brotherhood. The strike can be averted only if the Federal railroad adinistration before Saturday grants wage increases demanded last summer, Mr. Barker said last night.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Belief that Director General Hines will refuse to grant the wage increases demanded by more than 2,000,000 railroad workers continued to grow yesterday. As the union officials prepared to attend today to what railroad administration officials declared likely would be the last conference tomorrow, indications were strong that a bare concession of adjustment of alleged inequalities in pay would be the sum total of changes permitted in the present wage agreements.

KOREANS KILL 400 JAPS

Rebellion, Fostered by Bolsheviki, Said to be Beginning of Tremendous Affair

Washington, Feb. 10.—An active rebellion in Korea against Japanese rule, fostered by the Russian Bolsheviki and characterized as "the beginning of a tremendous affair," is in progress, according to official dispatches. A recent clash resulted in defeat of the Japanese, 300 of whom were killed and the remainder routed.

The Koreans moved into the territory from Kirin, Manchuria. Other clashes with the small Japanese garrisons have occurred, the Japanese having been out-numbered and overwhelmed in nearly every case.

Dispatches have indicated for some time that the revolutionary spirit was spreading in Korea, stimulated by activities of the Bolsheviki. There are in addition many Chinese brigands in the Manchurian and Siberian border regions with whom the Bolsheviki organizations in Siberia have shown signs of combining for the invasion of Korea.

London, Feb. 10.— Northern Korea has been evacuated by the Japanese, it is claimed in a wireless dispatch from Moscow yesterday quoting an Omsk message The population rose to aid Korean forces from Chinese territory, it is declared.

The Omsk message, as given in the Bolshevik wireless, says that on February 6 bands of Koreans raised in Chinese territory crossed the frontier and attacked the Japanese. Masses of the population are joining the insurgents, it is added, the Japanese are retreating and evacuating Northern Korea.

Several reports of renewed anti-Japanese movement in Korea have been received recently.

Despite the fact that she wears the most luxurious and gorgeous costumes when appearing in her screen productions, Nazimova in private life wears the most common-sense dresses she can obtain. The great Russian actress, now appearing in "Stronger Than Death," a picturization of an I. A. R Wylie novel at the Richmond tonight in her own household is the most model of sensible and economic dressers.

"Of course," she replied once to the question, "I like to dress my parts as they should be dressed. Off the stage I do not care for them. I generally wear black and the plainest, least expensive things."
